The College of Liberal and Fine Arts’ 35th Annual Juried Student Exhibition

In Conjunction with the 19th Annual COLFA Research Conference

Exhibition Dates: March 20 - April 12, 2019
(During Contemporary Art Month!)
Opening Reception: Wednesday, March 20, 5 - 7pm

Juror: Bill FitzGibbons, Artist
https://www.billfitzgibbons.com

Eligibility: Register online by 4:30pm March 5 at http://colfa.utsa.edu/colfa/forms/colfa_confrence_registration
All enrolled Graduate and Undergraduate students are eligible to participate.
Art majors are encouraged! All mediums and sizes are eligible.

Instructions for registration:
Click on the registration link and fill out your information.
- On the “Title of Research Project” section, input the title of your artworks.
  (Artwork that still in progress may be titled “Untitled”)
- On the “Submission Category” section, select “work of art”
- On the “Faculty Sponsor” section, type “Scott Sherer”

2018 Best of Show Wai Ching Lam Art Prize winner
Eden Collins, My Highness, Archival pigment print, mixed media

Awards: Cash awards for 1st, 2nd, & 3rd places for both Undergraduate and Graduate levels are awarded from COLFA, and one Best of Show Award from the Wai Ching Lam Art Prize. Awards will be announced at the opening reception. However, all award winners MUST attend the COLFA Research Conference Award Ceremony at 3pm on March 21 in the Art Building Recital Hall 2.03.02.
Please Note: Only the students who registered by March 5 are eligible for the COLFA awards.

Entry Rules:
- Entry fee is $7 for two pieces, and $5 for each additional piece.
- Works must be ready to hang: no wet paint, no unframed drawings, photos, or prints allowed.
- Please use plexiglas in frames – no glass will be accepted.
- Please bring all necessary appropriate hardware (no nails, thumbtacks, or pushpins).
- Sculptors should provide their own pedestals when appropriate, those presenting digital media or videos must provide their own monitors or projectors, and installations must be installed by the artist.
- Plan ahead and solve your framing/hanging/display issues ahead of time!!

Drop off: Fill out the entry form and submit your artworks in front of the Main Gallery in the Art Building 2.03.04:
Tuesday, March 5, 8am - 5pm

Pick up: If your work is NOT selected for the exhibition, please pick it up March 7 through March 8 from the Art Office, 4.01.06 between 9am & 4pm. Works must be picked up no later than 4pm on March 8 NO EXCEPTIONS or it will be discarded.

The exhibition closes on April 12. All exhibited works should be picked up from the Main Gallery, Monday, April 15, 10am - 4pm & Tuesday, April 16, 10am - 4pm. Please plan accordingly.

Disclaimer: Your works will be handled with the utmost care and supervision, however, UTSA volunteers and staff will not be held responsible for accidental damage to, or the loss of, works held in storage (gallery or otherwise) during selection, or after pick up dates.

Contact: Coordinator: juan.mora@utsa.edu | Faculty sponsor: scott.sherer@utsa.edu
Good Luck!!